Information on the area of the ride:

The venue and route is by kind permission of Edward Packe-Drury-Lowe, Prestwold Hall Estate. The route is across the private estate, on the permissive bridle routes surrounding Prestwold, Hoton and Cotes. Terrain is mostly gently rolling to flat, wide grassy field edges with very little road work. Any gates should be open.

Directions:

From the North and South – M1 to Junction 24 – then take the A6 Derby Road (signposted Kegworth / Loughborough). Just before Loughborough turn left on to the A6004 Nottingham Road. Drive through Loughborough, then left on to the A60 (signposted Nottingham) Continue on the A60 – through the village of Cotes. Just before reaching Hoton turn right on to Prestwold Lane. The venue is on the left and will be signposted. Do not go in where the sign reads 'Prestwold Hall Driving Centre' – it is the second entrance, just before the bend. There will be a venue sign.

Facilities at venue:

Toilets / Water / Catering van

Please take litter home with you and do not muck trailers / boxes out at venue.

Dogs only permitted if they are on a lead at ALL TIMES at the direct request of the estate.
